

Katerina Mageros was born in the mountain village of Drimonas on the island of Kythera in March 1907.

At age 21 she married Minas Mageros from the same village. They established a home in the village and had 2 boys, Panayiotis and Manolis.

In 1937 Minas migrated to Australia, Katerina followed in 1952. The whole family worked hard in various businesses.

In time Katerina became the proud grandmother of 7 grandchildren and 12 great grand children.

She recently celebrated her 100th birthday surrounded by her family and friends at the St. Nicholas Nursing

Home. (17-3-2007) IN SOUTH BRISBANE. Q

Dear Katherine

I was pleased to hear that on 25 March 2007 you will be celebrating your one hundredth birthday.

It must be a unique experience to be able to look back over a period of one hundred years and recall the many experiences and events which have occurred during your lifetime.

Heather and I would like to personally congratulate you on having reached this great milestone, and we trust that the future will see you enjoying good health and peace with your family and friends.

Yours sincerely
